NOTIFICATION

Whereas a good number of complaints have been received by the School Education Department against the prevailing system of lottery conducted in Government-run-Schools in connection with selection of candidates for admission of students in elementary classes;

And whereas students belonging to reserved category are reportedly being deprived of their legitimate privileges by such process of lottery.

Now, therefore, the Government is pleased to introduce separate sets of lotteries as per mode stated hereunder.

- i) At first a general lottery from among all applications irrespective of any category to find out the selected general candidates.
- ii) A second set lottery for left over candidates in each category i.e. separate lottery for the left over SC candidates, separate for left over ST candidates and separate lottery for left over OBC candidates to select the candidates from the reserved quota in each category.

This will be effective from the next academic session i.e. 2012 in all Govt. / Govt. aided schools across the State of West Bengal for admission of students in elementary classes.

By the order of the Governor-

Sd/- V. Sen

Secretary

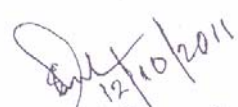

School Education Department.

Subject : Admission of students in elementary classes in all Govt. and Govt. aided schools in the State of West Bengal for the academic session,2012.

Madam/Sir,

With reference to the above I am directed to inform you that the issue in question was discussed in Cabinet meeting held on 16/11/2011 and it has been decided that lottery system for the purpose of admission of students in elementary classes for the academic session, 2012 will be followed.

I am therefore, further directed to inform you that the order issued vide this Deptt. No. 628-SE (Pry)/10M-186/2010 dated 12.10.2011 shall stand valid and to be followed meticulously regarding admission of students for the academic session, 2012. Moreover, I am directed to say that in case where a school has both Primary and Secondary section, there will no lottery for students already admitted in the primary section. In case there are any excess seats after admission of existing students only then there may be a lottery at class-V for filling up the additional seats.

Yours faithfully,

22/11/2011
